

Roermond City for every one!

2017, January 31

Crossing borders
in health

Start with ideas from citizens and professionals

Information & education

Dementia friendly supermarkets, churches, restaurants, choirs, organizations

Listening to and working together with informal caregivers & professionals

Working together with an housing association: adjustments of houses education of employees

Positive health & prevention

Public relations what do you do?

Cities, villages, communities for every one

